AD LIBS CHARLIE BROWN!

CHRISTMAS was right around the corner, and it was supposed to be the most _____ time of year. But CHARLIE BROWN couldn't shake his _____ feelings. Everywhere he turned, he was bombarded with _____ lights and _____ decorations. Even his _____ SNOOPY had been swept up in the commercialism of Christmas, as he hastily decorated his _____ in hopes of winning the neighborhood contest. Hoping to _____ his spirit, LUCY suggested that CHARLIE BROWN direct the school play. But he soon realized that the play had been tainted with modern _____ and _____ music. So LUCY charged CHARLIE BROWN and LINUS (a boy obsessed with his _____) with the task of getting a Christmas tree for the play, preferably "a big, shiny _____" one. Once at the lot, CHARLIE BROWN instantly attached himself to a pitiful, _____. Once they brought the _____ tree back to the school, everyone laughed at their _____ choice of a tree. Utterly dismayed by their response, CHARLIE BROWN wondered about the true meaning of _____. LINUS then told of the _____ and birth of our Savior. Encouraged, CHARLIE BROWN took his tree home to _____.
