Paper heart flower craft template

Paper carnations are a perfect introduction to paper flower crafts. Follow these simple instructions to bring tissue paper to life.What You'll Need:Brightly colored tissue paperRulerDull pencilScissorsGreen chenille stemsClear tapeGreen florist tapeStep 1: Using 3 layers of 1 color of tissue paper, cut out a section about 12 inches long and 3 inches wide.Step 2: In the lower left-hand and right-hand corners, make a pencil mark 1/2 inch above the bottom edge.Step 3: Now carefully draw a straight line across the tissue from pencil mark to pencil mark. Also in the lower left-hand corner, make a second mark 1/2 inch above the line.Step 4: From the second mark, draw a diagonal line to the top right corner. Cut off the excess tissue paper above the diagonal line.Step 5: All the way across the tissue paper, make narrow cuts from the top diagonal edge down to the straight line across the bottom.Step 6: Place the top part of the chenille stem in the corner of the short end, and tape it down.Step 7: Roll the pipe cleaner toward the long end. Make sure the bottom edges of the tissue paper always line up.Step 8: When done, tape the bottom edge of the tissue paper down. Wrap green florist tape around the top of the chenille stem and 1 inch up the flower.Step 9: Now slowly pull down and fluff out the flower "petals," working from the outside in toward the center.Behold the finished carnation! Experiment with other color combinations and shapes of petals to make other kinds of flowers.Next, learn to craft a feast for the eyes from a product intended for the nose. Their gardens will be growing pretty in no time.Get the tutorial at Under a Tin Roof. 3 of 25 Free Botanical Printables This DIY floral idea involves very little doing. Simply print Bless'er House's beautiful botanical designs for free, frame, and voilà! A flower-filled gallery wall fit for your farmhouse.Get the tutorial at Bless'er House. 4 of 25 DIY Spring Wreath The blooms on this embroidery hoop wreath look so real, no one will know they're faux.Get the tutorial at Delia Creates. 5 of 25 Flower Vase Craft Add these vintage-inspired labels to Mason jars and milk bottles for an adorable apothecary jars effect. Get the tutorial at Bless'er House. 6 of 25 Floral Napkin Rings Flowers are a nice touch for any table setting. Since these floral napkin holders start as shower rings (yes, really!), it's also an inexpensive idea.Get the tutorial at Shades of Blue Interiors. 7 of 25 Pressed Flower Tub Board Add flair to your tub board using a pressed flower technique.Get the tutorial at Decoholic. 8 of 25 Floral Bath Salt Soak While you're at it, use some of those blooms to create a relaxing salt soak.Get the tutorial at Salt & Ritual. 9 of 25 Make Your Own Vases Floral foam and glass marbles aren't the only ways to hold flowers aloft. Instead, a bunch of vintage milk bottles gives this arrangement—featured in Decorating with Flowers by Paula Pryke—its structure. Simply line up nine same-size vessels in three rows of three. Then wrap gardener's twine around the grouping twice and tie the ends. Finish the blooming display by placing two to three stems in each container. 10 of 25 Converted Colander Planter Forget flower pots! Turn an old shipping pallet into a vertical garden with this creative DIY.Get the tutorial. 12 of 25 Floral Garland With Lights How dreamy is this silk flower garland? Its tiny lights will give any bedroom a romantic glow.Get the tutorial at The Craft Patch. 13 of 25 Painted Daisy Mason Jars Lovely daisies set off the mason jars' cheerful blue in this simple spring craft.Get the tutorial at Mason Jar Crafts Love. 14 of 25 Floral Hanging Frame Give a plain wire frame a burst of spring by arranging faux flowers around the edge. Add photos or other mementos for a personal touch.Get the tutorial at DIY Candy. 15 of 25 Paper Flower Garland Dress up your mantel for the season with a pretty paper garland. Get the tutorial at Lia Griffith. 16 of 25 Zinnia Pine Cones Flipped over and covered in colorful acrylic paint, pine cones resemble beautiful zinnias! Unlike the real thing though, these will last far beyond spring.Get the tutorial from a Fanciful Twist. 17 of 25 Floral Print DIY Dresser Make paper photocopies of a botanical fabric, then use a utility knife to cut out desired portions of the print. With dresser drawers closed and pulls removed, map out placement of botanicals, then decoupage to dresser using a medium-strength adhesive like Mod Podge (available at craft stores). Once dry, carefully run a razor blade between drawers so they open properly. Finish with a coat of clear acrylic sealant. 18 of 25 Floral Favors Fashioned with small, sweet flowers from the garden or even the supermarket, nosegays make perfect party favors (or boutonnieres at a country wedding). Tie them with homemade ribbons that are made with pinking shears from floral fabrics. To keep the flowers fresh, cut them the morning of your party. You might want to provide small vases or containers so guests can tote them home. 19 of 25 DIY Floral Pillows 20 of 25 Pressed Flower iPhone Case Pressed and dried flowers make a beautiful (and inexpensive!) iPhone case.Get the tutorial at The Etsy Blog. 21 of 25 Jewelry Magnets Instead of letting vintage brooches gather dust in your jewelry box, turn them into refrigerator magnets: Use a pair of needle-nose pliers to remove the pin hardware from the back of each brooch (most fittings will come off easily); then affix a superstrong magnet with a small bead of glue—we used Gorilla Super Glue. Let dry overnight. Your grocery list has never looked more glam! 22 of 25 Daisy Lollipops These dainty lollipops may just be too pretty to eat.Get the tutorial at Intimate Weddings. 23 of 25 Flower Cloche Make the Disney movie come to life with this Beauty and the Beast-inspired flower cloche.Get the tutorial at The House That Lars Built. 24 of 25 Flower Petal Stained Glass Use contact paper and flower petals to make a spring-inspired stained glass window. Get the tutorial at Artful Parent. 25 of 25 Lemon Flower Vase Brighten up your home for spring with this lemon vase. Perfect for every day or a special event. Photo: Nassima Rothacker Paper crafting is a relatively easy and inexpensive way to make decorations. Even the simplest designs, like this house template, add a stylish touch. All look even more effective when highlighted by glowing fairy lights or battery powered tealights. Christmas craft light house template (as seen in Country Living magazine December 2014) This little structure which will brighten any festive arrangement is simple to make from scored and folded card, using the template below.
