California residential lease application pdf

California Rental Request The module is often used by a property owner or company when looking for a valid candidate for a rental available. This document will help an applicant submit his information to a single place thus making the candidate's application process simpler. In addition, a set module will facilitate the evaluation process of a reviewer efficiently. Due to the sensitive nature of the information a potential tenant must transmit, a document easily recognizable with a set format will provide a security level both to a owner who has to protect the confidential documents and an applicant who needs to see that information is taken seriously. Application for registration (Cal. Civ. Code § 1950.6) – Initially, owners could charge a maximum screening fee of $30. This amount may be adjusted annually with the consumer price index. From February 2020, the maximum registration fee is $52.46. Security deposit (Cal. Civ. Code § 1950.5(c)) – Californian owners may not charge an amount greater than two (2) months of rent for unfurnished properties, or three (3) months of rent for furnished properties.
