Forest Animal Play Dough Small World - Simple forest animal cards that can be used during a simple small world activity. This free printable includes a front cover and a grid for the names (and it's editable!).

Snack Math for Preschoolers - Kids like counting and sorting their snacks! Let them use these snack math sheets to do just that.

Christmas Letter Tiles Pages - Have the children use these pages to make a variety of Christmas-themed words. Lion Ten Frames - Use these printable ten frames with mini erasers, math manipulatives, or small toys while working on number identification and one-to-one correspondence.

You'll find worksheet that include ABC letters to print for free, as well as math sheets to print out. Magnetic Letter Sorting Mats - Kids can learn so much from sorting letters! Apple Alphabet - Use these letters during an apple theme or as part of a Ten Apples Up on Top activity.

Other Free Preschool Printables for the Classroom: Butterfly Sensory Bottle Labels - Use these printables to label colorful butterfly sensory bottles. We have so many more free preschool resources that can help. Sign-In Book - The preschool kiddos sign in every day in my classroom. Many of these sites are age specific, but there are others that offer materials for children of all ages.

Perfect for the block center in a classroom or at home. September "Homework" Calendar - This isn't really homework, more like an activity calendar to share with your students' families. The preschool English worksheets category includes spelling, reading, rhyming, phonics, and alphabet printables.

Monster Matching Cards - Simple cards that can be used for making or writing Halloween words. Acorn and Leaf Calendar Numbers for Fall - Print out the acorn and leaf numbers for use during fall circle time, or a variety of other math activities. They have ideas for fun and simple learning kids can do with their families.

Related: Materials for Easter Printable Prep Free Printable Book-Making Activities I think making books with kids is one of my favorite things to do in the classroom. I'll be adding more free preschool printables as I create them, so be sure to pop back and check this page every once in a while! Let me know if you use any of my printables with your children or your students - I'd love to know what you think!

More Early Learning Resources: If you're looking to save time planning for preschool (and, really, who isn't?), pop over and check out Preschool Teacher 101, Easter-Themed Letter Recording Sheet - Have the children keep track of the letters they find hidden inside plastic Easter eggs (or an Easter-themed sensory bin). Finding free printable worksheets is an excellent way for teachers and homeschooling parents to save on their budgets. They are designed for preschoolers' cognitive and literacy development. Print as many as you want and make as many copies as you would like. Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star Rhyming Activity - Simple rhyming cards to extend a classic nursery rhyme. Apple Numbers - Kids can order numbers, count, and practice one-to-one correspondence skills. I'm not a big fan of preschool worksheets, which focus more on only paper and pencil work or rote copying. Or add them to your calendar or circle time area. However, I do like using hands-on printables at times in the classroom.

Nursery Rhyme Journals - Use these pages to set up poetry journals for your students. Reptile Word Cards - Children can use these cards to write reptile words or create the words with letter tiles. We used them for a matching game. "You've Been Hugged" - Surprise some friends (or students, or students' families) with a sweet treat and these printable notes for Valentine's Day. Get More Worksheets Free preschool printables for early childhood teachers, be they at home or in the classroom. Halloween Tracing and Cutting Strips - Children can work on their fine motor skills with mini erasers, loose parts, dry erase markers, or play dough on these printable strips. Be sure you're looking in the right place when you're searching for free-to-print worksheets to ensure they're age appropriate.

Look at Educational Websites and Blogs: There are a broad range of educational websites and blogs catering to teachers, homeschooling parents and parents who want to help their children with advancement or overcoming struggles. Helicopter Dice Game - A dice game suited for a transportation theme! More Free Preschool Math Printables Bunny Shape Mats - These can be used as numbers, measurement, and counting printables. Robot Number Cards - Number cards to use with the kids during a robot theme (or anytime, really). MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET Please help us spread the word: Free Preschool Worksheets The idea behind this website is to make a place where parents, teachers, and childcare professionals can download and print free educational resources for preschoolers. Advent Calendar for Preschool - Send these home with your students' families if they're looking for some fun ideas for counting down to Christmas. The preschool activity worksheets category includes scissors practice, mazes, connect the dots, coloring, and tracing printables. More Literacy Printables for Preschool Name Snowman Craft - Use the printable snowball letters (and editable snowman hat) to encourage kids as they learn their names. You can also find us on Teachers Pay Teachers. We want the worksheets we have created to be used by as many kids as possible. Free Preschool Printables for Learning Numbers Valentine's Day Number Cards - Heart-themed number cards, as well as a candy jar counting mat to use with the numbers. Add them to a sensory bin for even more exploration. I also like making such printables for my classroom, as I can tailor them to what the kiddos are learning about, or what they're interested in. They might also provide free coloring pages, puzzles and other fun activities. Don't Forget Your School! Sometimes a school website will post a blog or feature information on their library's website that includes free printable worksheets. Heart Letters - We used these printable heart letters to work on the children's names. If you refine your search to include a specific type of worksheet (like learning to print the alphabet), your search results will produce free worksheets specifically for that task. Candy Heart Experiment Recording Sheet - Use these recording sheets to keep track of the kids' observations during the experiment. We had fun using them with a sensory writing tray. Younger kids need to have different types of engagement in order to facilitate learning. They can, of course, be used for a variety of other activities. Train Numbers - Number cards for a train or transportation theme. You can use printable books where the kids are the authors, they can dictate or write their own stories, or you can even make class books with the kids! So many possibilities. Bear Math Pattern Strips - Help children explore patterns using bear math manipulatives and these pattern strips. Worksheets Cover English, Math, Activities, and General Learning Our free worksheets are broken down into four main categories and cover different areas of early childhood education. You can also refine your search so it includes age, grade level and subject. Preschool Classroom Jobs - Every week, my preschool kiddos get new preschool jobs. We used them for a fun slime monster counting activity. The preschool learning worksheets category includes weather, holiday, seasonal, colors, and telling time printables. Free to Use Anywhere including Preschools, Daycare Centers, Summer Camps, and at Home One of the more common questions we get is "What are we allowed to do with the worksheets?". These Preschool Printables are Different Daycare worksheets cannot just be handed out and expected to be completed. Below you'll find Fun-A-Day's collection of free preschool printables. These job charts help us keep track of who is doing what. Let me know what you think about them! Free Preschool Printables for the Block Center Book of Structures for the Block Center - Real photos of structures around the world, along with a label of their country of origin. Kids can explore numerical order, number recognition, and one-to-one correspondence. There are preschool lesson plans, math resources, literacy resources, and a lot more available for you. Say It, Write It, Make It Alphabet Mats - Spring-themed letter cards that you can use with the printable mat. They are a wonderful way for kids to learn the fundamental aspects of life. "Make Way for Ducklings" Dice Game - This game is fun as a Make Way for Ducklings extension, or just because! Fine Motor Apple Math Game - Combine fine motor practice and math with one fun and simple game. "Work in Progress" Sign for the Block Center - We have these in the block center so kiddos can "save" their work when needed. Here are ways to find printable worksheets for kids. Parenting Blogs and Websites Visiting parenting blogs and websites offers you a variety of opportunities for finding free printable worksheets for kids. Weather Book This weather book introduces your kids to weather description words. Teachers and parents can print a worksheet and then make learning game or activity out of it. Christmas Tree Slime and Ornament Numbers - The children can pair the ornament numbers with slime as they practice counting and one-to-one correspondence. Dice Game Roll and Cover Math Printables Snowman Roll and Cover - Snowman-shaped number game and printable number cube to work on counting and number identification. Under some circumstances, teachers will also operate individual webpages that offer free printable worksheets to help their students engage in fun activities when they're not in the classroom, or so they can continue learning throughout the summer. You can find all of our free printable books for preschoolers here! Alphabet Free Preschool Printables Ladybug Letter Puzzles - Kids work on matching uppercase and lowercase letters with these puzzles. They were inspired by our butterfly life cycle necklaces. Here's a video sneak peek: Weather-Themed Word Cards - Printable word cards that are perfect for a weather theme. Many of these blogs and websites cater to children of all ages, but some of them are age specific. They help children with developing fine motor skills and critical thinking ability. Children will become familiar with basic math skills. Butterfly Life Cycle Cards - Leaf cards for each stage of the butterfly life cycle. "Put the Mud on the Pig" Dice Game - I use this easy game during farm themes. A toddler who is two years old and a preschooler who is four years old learn differently than older children. Valentine Dice Games - Two versions (colorful and black-and-white) of a sweet heart-themed dice game. For example, if they print workbooks or other types of reading materials for educators, homeschooling parents or parents who participate in summer bridge learning programs, you could find award certificates to print and other free worksheets to support your curriculum on these websites. Box Tops for Education Collection Sheets - Help kids sort and count Box Tops before turning them in at school. Dinosaur Busy Bag - Kiddos practice sorting by color with this dino-themed busy bag. Preschool-aged children will benefit the most from the free printable worksheets on the site right now but we also plan on adding additional resources for younger kids. All of our free preschool worksheets can be downloaded in the PDF file format and then printed or you can print the worksheets directly in your browser.
